Fronrunner Collective is pleased to announce AN ANNUAL AFFAIR, a pop-up group exhibition on view at the West Chelsea Arts Building at 526 West 26th Street, #1001, Friday, May 5, from 6:00 PM to 9:00 PM.

Held concurrently with Frieze Art Week, An Annual Affair presents a D-I-Y alternative to Frieze New York and its numerous satellite fairs. Curated by Edward Symes, An Annual Affair brings a dynamic and diverse group of emerging artists to the heart of Chelsea, distinctly separate from the fairs' established roster of artists and commercial focus.

An Annual Affair features artists working in a wide variety of mediums, creating a rich conversation about the multiplicity of art-making practices. With their range of talents, the artists in An Annual Affair are joined together by their creative fearlessness and cross-disciplinary ingenuity. By launching an exhibition independent of the week's fairs, An Annual Affair aims to foster an encouraging and accessible community of artists and art viewers.

About Us

With an ongoing dedication to supporting artists, Fronrunner Collective was founded in the fall of 2009. Beginning as an online magazine in order to feature the creative work of friends, Fronrunner expanded into a physical gallery space on Franklin Street in TriBeCa in 2010. A collective for emerging artists, the gallery continued to present exhibitions, performances and special events until 2012. Today, Fronrunner showcases artists through pop-up exhibitions in New York and elsewhere.
